A Present
for the Queen

Adapted by

Lauren Clauss

Illustrated by the

Disney Storybook Art Team

Alice sits by her window.

It looks like Christmas!

Snow is falling, and kids are playing.

Alice stays inside, reading her book.

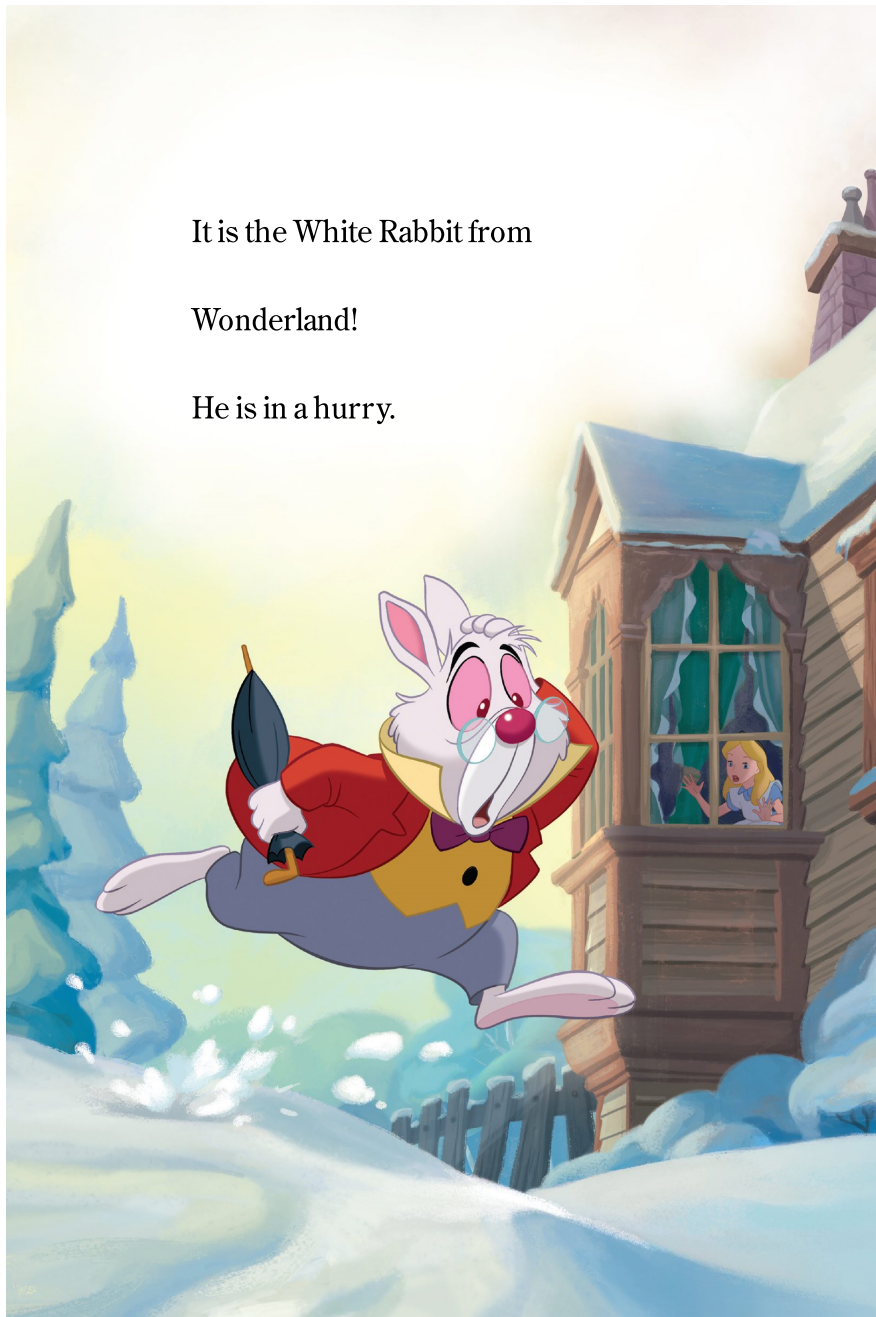

Alice leans toward the window.

She sees something run past.

It is the White Rabbit from Wonderland!

He is in a hurry.

Alice walks outside.

She talks to the White Rabbit.

He is afraid.

He does not have a Christmas present for the Queen of Hearts!

Alice remembers the last time

the Queen of Hearts did not get a present.

She was very angry!

Alice decides to help the

White Rabbit

Alice follows the White Rabbit
down the hole.

She falls down and down.

Alice lands with a thump.

She is in Wonderland!

The White Rabbit is gone!

Alice sees footprints.

She follows the trail to a tree.

The Cheshire Cat is in the tree!

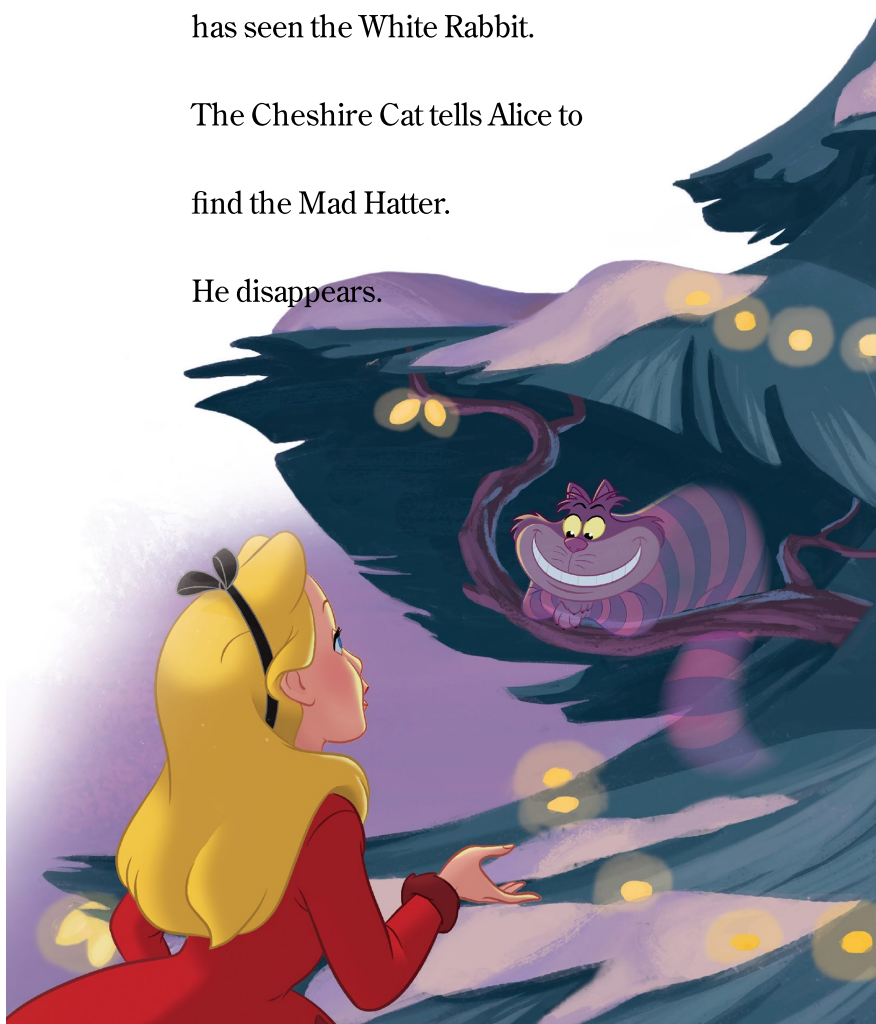

Alice asks if the Cheshire Cat

has seen the White Rabbit.

The Cheshire Cat tells Alice to find the Mad Hatter.

He disappears.

Alice walks away.

She sees Tweedledum and Tweedledee.

She follows them.

Alice hears singing.

She walks through a door.

It is the Mad Hatter and the March Hare!

They are happy to see Alice.

They invite her to sing Christmas

Harolds with them.

“Don’t you mean Christmas carols?”

Alice asks them.

But Alice does not have time to sing.

She needs help.

She needs to find a Christmas present for the Queen!

The Mad Hatter gives Alice a cookie.

He thinks it is what she needs.

Alice remembers when she gave the Queen a cookie.

The Queen did not like it.

Next the Mad Hatter offers Alice some cold cocoa.

“Do you mean hot cocoa?” Alice corrects him.

But she does not want cocoa.

She needs a present for the Queen.

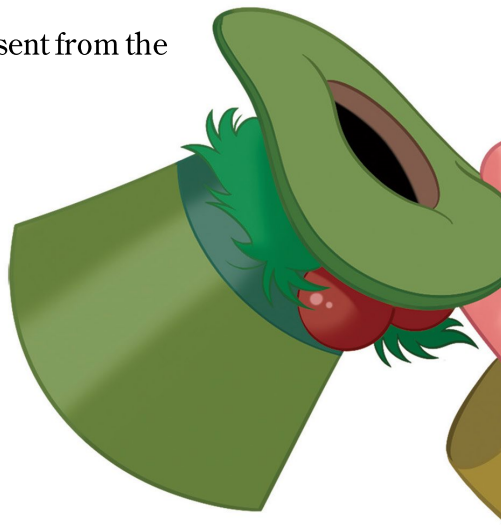

The Mad Hatter takes off his hat.

The Dormouse is there.

He is on top of a Christmas present!

Alice takes the present from the Mad Hatter.

Alice takes the present to the Queen's castle.

She gets caught by the Queen's guards.

The Queen is mad at Alice.

The guards bring Alice to the Queen's throne room.

The White Rabbit is already there!

The White Rabbit tells the Queen

he does not have her Christmas gift.

The Queen is angry.

“Off with his head!” she shouts.

Alice runs up to the Queen.

She tells the Queen she has a present for her!

The Queen opens the present.

It is a small Christmas tree!

Alice leaves the castle as the Queen admires her gift.

She runs.

She falls down a snowy hill.

Alice wakes up.

She is back in her home.

Alice thinks her trip was a dream.

She looks out the window.

The Mad Hatter's hat is on a snowman.

How curious!
